

MS Masterclass: Elevating Practice for optimal patient support

Date: Wednesday 10th September 2025

Venue: Leeds Venue TBC

Meeting Arrival coffee from 9.00am, meeting starts at 9.30am - 4.30pm

Enhance your confidence and proficiency in delivering exceptional care to patients with MS. Specifically designed for qualified healthcare professionals working with patients living with MS. This course will equip you with essential learning to ensure best practice and improve the overall well-being for patients.

What's included?

- Comprehensive Neurogenic bladder anatomy and physiology: Understanding how the bladder is affected by MS
- Comprehensive Neurogenic bowel anatomy and physiology: Understanding how the bowel is affected by MS
- Interactive case studies: Real-life scenarios for problem-solving and practical application
- Evidence based practice: Latest research and evidence in caring for patients with MS
- Physical and Psychological Affects: The impact MS has on the patient's well-being.
- Q&A and peer discussion: Opportunities to exchange experiences and discuss challenging cases with your peers

Empower your care with practical skills that make a difference!

To register your place please click here